■ACTUATION AREA

The special functions of the smart entry and start system only work when the key is in the actuation area formed by the eight oscillators.

- The front and rear room oscillators form the actuation area of the push button start function.
- Front door oscillators and inner and outer trunk oscillators form the actuation area of the entry function.

RHD Models

*: Only models for G.C.C. Countries and Australia