Cellular-phone-link Audio Phone

By connecting a cellular phone to a telephone adapter, this system can output voice conversation through the passenger's side front speaker and input voice conversation through the microphone. Thus, this system enables hands-free conversation. For details, see the equipment list in this section (see page MO-42).

