■ SIDE DESIGN

- Each pillar is shaped to make the opening of the window area appear wide, which offers a sense of spaciousness. (1)
- The upper section of the inside trim is shaped for easy placement of the elbow and surface processed for improved comfort. (2)
- The inside trim section has a concave surface that fits around the waist of the passengers to emphasize the width. (3)
- The shape and color scheme of the floor mat that spreads to the side of the vehicle ensures foot space and considers cleanliness. (4)

► Text in Illustration ◄

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| *a | The illustrations shown are examples only. | - | - |

- A inside trim cover has been adopted for the upper section of the inside trim on some specification models to improve the feel of the material.
- Pillar garnish has been adopted for each pillar to improve marketability and provided depending on the specifications.
- Each pillar shape is optimized to expand the passenger cabin space and reduce the feeling of pressure when sitting in a window seat.

*a

0479BO76

► Text in Illustration ◄

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| *a | The illustrations shown are examples only. The items displayed differ by vehicle specifications. | - | - |
| 0479BO78 | Pillar Garnish Adopted Section | 0479BO77 | Inside Trim Cover Adopted Section |