Seat

A water repellant and waterproof fabric is used for the seat surface to allow easy wipe-down of dirt and water. The fabric uses a urethane film to prevent dampness.
The urethane film allows the seat to “breath”, while also preventing water from soaking in.

- The effectiveness of the water repellent coating may be reduced due to the length of time in service.

: Water Repellant and Waterproof Fabric

Fabric Cross Section

0240MO34C