COMBINATION SWITCH

■ DESCRIPTION

The adoption of an independent construction for the wiper and washer switch and the light control switch eliminates the need for removing the steering wheel when removing and installing the switches. Further, a construction that allows straight mounting was achieved by using a hook to mount each switch to the bracket. Though these features, serviceability has been improved.

286BE21