■ GLOW PLUG CONTROLLER

1. Function

- The glow plug controller controls the operating temperature and the length of time for which current is applied to the glow plug assemblies in accordance with signals from the ECM.
- The glow plug controller has a function to detect open circuits in the glow plug assemblies. When the glow plug controller detects an open circuit in a glow plug assembly, it sends a signal to the ECM.