Power Back Door System

The power back door can be fully closed or opened automatically by operating the power back door opener/closer switch or the power back door button on the door control transmitter. Also, it can be fully closed automatically through the use of the power back door closer switch.

- A power back door OFF switch that prohibits automatic operation is provided.
- The sounding of the power back door buzzer and blinking of the hazard lights indicates the power back door operation.

06J0MO45Z

Door Control Transmitter

06J0MO46Z