

COMBINATION SWITCH

■ DESCRIPTION

A combination switch consisting of a lightweight and compact wiper/washer switch and a light control switch has been adopted. On the previous model, a bracket was used to mount the combination switch to the steering column. On the new model, this has been changed so that the combination switch is mounted directly onto the steering column with a band, resulting in weight reduction.

271BE61