4. Exhaust System

- A stainless steel exhaust manifold has been adopted for weight reduction.
- Two TWCs (Three-Way Catalytic Converter) have been adopted in order to comply with the European STEP II regulations.
- An air gap front pipe has been adopted to improve the warm-up performance of the TWC and reduce exhaust gas emissions.

