- The rear bumper cover has been through composite manufacturing to improve the looks. Also, an absorber has been provided inside the bumper cover to reduce the damage to the body during a light collision.

▶ Rear Bumper Cross Section ◀

■OUTSIDE MOULDING AND WHEEL OPENING EXTENSION

Outside moldings have been added to protect the bottom of the doors from chipping by flying stones. The appearance of the outside molding has been improved by designing them to integrate with the front and rear wheel-opening extensions. Also, the outside moldings and front and rear wheel opening extension are made of a high strength, recyclable TSOP.

